

WISE

Dr Lisa Cluett's key research areas are applying Web 2.0 tools to student learning, creating online student communities and social media. She is Learning, Language & Research Skills Adviser at UWA.

*You are invited to a WISE workshop on Friday 25 June 2010
Dr Lisa Cluett will be running a workshop for WISE members
'A step-by-step guide to preparing a presentation'*

*Teaching an information literacy session?
Presenting at a conference?
Presenting to colleagues?*

This workshop is a step-by-step guide to preparing a presentation and ideal for librarians with teaching and presenting responsibilities. Come along and discover 'the secret' and 'the process' involved in preparing an engaging presentation

Venue: University of Western Australia

Law Lecture Room 2

Directly opposite the Beasley Law Library

http://www.uwa.edu.au/campus_map

Start: 9.30 – 11am (Morning tea will be provided)

RSVP by 18 June to Carol Hicks chicks@library.uwa.edu.au